PONY CLUB
AUSTRALIA

Vale Gillian Rolton OAM

Gillian Rolton was Patron of Pony Club Australia, but meant so much more to everyone. We pay tribute to her life and contribution to sport in Australia, and especially to Pony Club.

Gillian's story was the embodiment of "A life with horses starts here". She talked her non-horsey parents into getting a horse at the age of 10, and then she was off. Her career went from rider, to elite competitor, Olympian, coach, official and administrator over the next 50 years. It is no surprise that the PCA Award for Pony Club alumni is named the "Gillian Rolton Award".

Gill was interested to assist those to take the pathway from enjoying riding at Pony Club to high level competition through EA, but also took great delight in listening to Pony Club members proud of a good dressage test, a clear round or a much-loved horse. "Fred" and the Olympics was a tale we never tired of hearing.

Gillian would regularly attend Pony Club events just because she found out they were on and she had a free day. She will always be remembered for her courage, care, smile and dedication to animals and equestrian sport. Our warm wishes to her husband Greg and family.

Next Generation of Pony Club Leaders

Pony Club Australia sponsored 7 Pony Club members to participate in the 2017 ASC Women Leadership in Sport program, and we have been following their progress.

Natasha Williams, Western Australia

The WLIS program was great as I got to meet and work with young women who are leading the way in Pony Club. Being a part of the group has allowed us to collaborate and problem-solve with many different perspectives brought into consideration. It empowers us to make a change as you know you have support of others. The workshop itself challenged me to think about the way I view people across all contexts - the reasons they may be the way they are and how they see things differently.

Throughout 2017, I have been lucky enough to have been offered a number of opportunities with Pony Club Australia, Pony Club WA and my local Pony Club – Riverside Park Pony Club. I have been a member of Riverside Park Pony Club since 1996 and have been Chief Coach in 2015 and 2017. Throughout this time I have represented my club, zone, state and country. Since completing my final years as a riding member in Pony Club I have obtained my Level 1 PC NCAS qualification and enjoy teaching all aspects of riding and horsemastership. I have been a member of the State Coaching Panel for two years and I am lucky enough to work with a number of likeminded people who focus on improving outcomes for all members.

My goals for the future include continuing my role within the State Coaching Panel and developing my coaching skills. Since being a member of the International Quiz team in 2014 I have always been passionate about getting the discipline of Quiz developed in WA. In 2018 I look forward to igniting this passion in developing Quiz with Pony Club members across the country.

Congratulations to Natasha and Elisha. They both got engaged on the same weekend this month on opposite sides of Australia !

Next Generation of Pony Club Leaders

Pony Club Australia sponsored 7 Pony Club members to participate in the 2017 ASC Women Leadership in Sport program, and we have been following their progress.

Elisha Hodgson, Queensland

The best thing about completing the Women Leaders in Sport Program was meeting other like-minded people who had similar interests and passion for improving the Pony Club movement. I could see some of the challenges that are currently facing other states and we could share our ideas on how we can overcome them or improve the practices within my local club and state.

I was able to identify some of the differences between Pony Club at the state level and the everyday running of clubs (i.e. membership fees, Rally/Muster Day structures, paid or non-paid coaches etc). Taking the good points and the bad points and understanding these challenges has allowed me to implement some of the changes in my club. For example I have started an award for the volunteer of the month in order to encourage participation, and have been assisting my club to ensure that there are open lines of communication, and worthwhile roles for volunteers.

The program also allowed me to understand my strengths and weaknesses as a leader, build my confidence and help provide strategies to improve my own personal qualities in every day life.

Pony Club has given me lots of opportunities. I have been riding for over 19 years and have my B certificate. Recently I competed at the National Championships and came 4th in the showjumping and was part of the winning senior Quiz team. In October I convened a huge equestrian event for the Gold Coast Community with over 150 participants from beginner, interschool, Pony Club and international/world cup riders.

I have started coaching at my property in Tallebudgera, and am sitting my instructor's course this month.

My goals for the future are to continue teaching my students; to provide more opportunities for riders within my local community to compete at prestigious events; and to continue enjoying riding whilst managing a full time career as a lawyer at OMB Solicitors, Southport.

Congratulations to Natasha and Elisha. They both got engaged on the same weekend this month on opposite sides of Australia !
